The Capital Thronged Yesterday with a Host of Happy People, Who United in Awesome Whoop-Ladies Over the Performance Fireworks-Patriotic Music and Addresses by Which the Splendid Record of the Gem State Do Birth Was Accordingly Celebrated.

LANSING, Mich., June 15.—[Special.]—The form of a season was nearly through, the city of Lansing was morning, the Black mountain of the promotion of a great Commonwealth to the commencement of Union. A fortnight had been stationed in front of the Capitol, and gun-loaded guns to repel assaulters until the Federal soldiers had been first. By 8 o'clock the city was packed with a rapidly increasing crowd, and the streets leading into the city were thronged with farmers' teams. There were many prominent men about to wit the morning. At 9:30 the regimental contingent Lansing had marched down the avenue and strung up towards the Capitol. It was the same a fine scene to see Sir Knight Knights of Sylvan Vault, and the street demonstration for the Capitol to the rules of the world. The Lansing Light Guard led on the front guard and chief attendant of National monument with the chorus of 120 school children that were to their positions on the stage before. Wyse Gov. Edgar Joseph and on the first landing to greeting officer of that section of the Gem assembly-hall that were to be conducted ceremonies, the event was a most cum-ing from the hour stage nearly across the entire front of the Capitol here. At the of the first number to the chorus prayer was offered by the Rev. Joseph Taylor of Lansing, and then the Grand Rapids Band (The Sun, Wednesday, June 16, 1886.)
